KEEPING YOU INFORMED – 2018

This article was written by Dave Pearce for his barbershop brothers in Saskatchewan.

Sing Canada Harmony raises and distributes funds in the form of scholarships for deserving Canadians in support of vocal music.

- In the past 10 years, over $500,000 has been awarded to support vocal music education for Canadians.
- Sing Canada is the only charity in Canada totally dedicated to supporting singing in our schools and communities.
- In 2017/2018, Saskatchewan singers, choirs and singing leaders received $16,000 in scholarships
- In 2018/2019 we expect to distribute about $80,000 across the country, to:
 - Children, youth and adult community choirs of all genres.
 - University and college music students
 - Directors and music administrators
 - Individual vocalists, instructors and coaches
- We have a program called, “Keep a Melody Ringing”, through which over 90 women and men have been memorialized in Harmony Hall in Nashville. All singers are eligible for this program.
- Everyone involved in vocal music is eligible to participate in our scholarship program.
- You can become an, Ambassador of Song by donating as little as $10.00/month or $120.00/year.
