

MUSIC & PERFORMANCE VICE PRESIDENT

The musical life of the chapter depends on the Music Vice President and his music leadership team. His enthusiasm and dedication must be coupled with the experience and expertise necessary to contribute as a valuable member of the team.

The music vice president is an elected officer and member of the board of directors. He is responsible for the musical growth of the chapter, with the assistance of his team and the cooperation of the musical director and his assistants.

Following are his duties:

- With the Boards approval, develop a music leadership team and direct them in planning the chapter's yearly music program, including the selection of music appropriate to the member's learning and performance abilities.
- Prepare an annual music leadership team budget for board approval.
- Oversee the maintenance of records of the chorus, such as audition, progress, etc.
- Plan and supervise in-house training sessions for music team members to ensure uniformity and continuity of teaching.
- Obtain the services of outside coaches and performance review specialists.
- Maintain an up-to-date copy of the Society's contest rules.
- Evaluate on a regular basis the goals set by the music leadership team.
- Manage the development and implementation of youth outreach activities.
- Manage a Quartet development program for the chapter.
- Attend Leadership Academy held each January conducted by the District.
