

Harmony Explosion Camps 2008

Harmony Explosion Camps are a great summer learning opportunity for young singers.

HX Camp 2008 will feature:

Thursday through Sunday schedule; similar to our Harmony College or district school
High school teachers and male singers within 350 miles of the site
Students learning three to five songs to perform on Saturday
A curriculum of vocal development, effective warm ups, and rehearsal techniques plus other classes.
Top Clinicians will be conducting the students and working with the teachers.
Camp locations: UW La Crosse, La Crosse, WI June 19 - 22, 2008

Frequently Asked Questions and their Answers

What are the goals and objectives for this project?

To assist the teacher in the performance of male choral singing, including barbershop and other TTBB music
To provide the students an educational and performance opportunity
To create a performing ensemble for the community
To establish a positive working relationship between the chapter and the music teachers in the community
To create a positive image in the community for the chapter's support of music education
